

Introduction to Digital Photography

Teacher: Sarah Bular

You will learn:

- * Camera parts, types, different lens, shooting in RAW
- * Lighting, aperture, white balance, f stop, ISO shutter speed
- * Composition and the rule of thirds
- * Landscapes
- * Portraits
- * Photojournalism
- * Studio Lighting and more!!

Cost: $350/Student

Course Materials Needed:

- *8 Megapixel or higher DSLR with manual shutter speed, f stop, ability to change lens, ISO settings. Cannon Cameras preferred if possible.
- *Camera Battery with charger
- *Memory cards with a 32gb minimum
- *Camera Owners manual
- *Notebook and pencils/pens
- *Email access and access to google docs
- *Laptop for editing in class
- *$10/month for 4 months for online editing program access

My Background:

My passion for photography started at the age of 5. Growing up I practiced and learned new skills through 4-H. When I graduated high school I decided to pursue a photography degree from Lansing Community College.

I have worked with many amazing photographers over the years. I have a love for family and high school senior photography. I am currently a stay at home mom to my 2 amazing kids. I love sharing photography with others!

Contact Information: (517)388-0668 or bular.sarah@gmail.com